KENTUCKY LEAGUE for NURSING
AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN NURSING EDUCATION

This Award for Excellence in Nursing Education in the Commonwealth of Kentucky will be presented to two outstanding academic nurse educators yearly during the annual business meeting of the Kentucky League for Nursing. The honor will recognize significant contribution to excellence and innovation in nursing education contributing to the preparation of the nursing workforce in the state.

Criteria:

The nominees for the KLN Award for Excellence in Nursing Education will:

1. demonstrate excellence and innovation in nursing education as evidenced by nomination by two peer members of KLN and submission of supporting evidence;
2. be an active faculty member of an academic nursing program within the Commonwealth of Kentucky;
3. reside in the Commonwealth of Kentucky;
4. hold current membership in the Kentucky League for Nursing;
5. demonstrate support for the mission and values of the Kentucky League for Nursing.

Nominations will be accepted by the Kentucky League for Nursing Board of Directors through a specified date not later than six weeks prior to the annual business meeting. Nominations will be in the form of a letter to the Board describing the faculty member's merits and support of the mission and values of the KLN submitted by at least two peer KLN members. Selection will be based on the award committee's evaluation of the submission compared to the stated criteria. The Award for Excellence in Nursing Education will be presented during the annual business meeting of the Kentucky League for Nursing. Recipients will be expected to present their work in the form of a poster presentation during the KLN Annual Conference for the following year.
