Paving the Way for the Future of Nursing Education

Once again the Kentucky League for Nursing hosts its Annual Nurse Educator Conference bringing the most current information in nursing education to your doorstep. This year's focus will be the future of nursing education with a special emphasis on the use of technology in the teaching of nursing. We'll take a look at where we are in nursing education, where we're going, and how we will get there.

The CE offering will begin on Thursday evening with an update from Dr. Charlotte Beason, Executive Director of the Kentucky Board of Nursing and continue on Friday with a forecast from Dr. Carolyn Lewis and a look at some technology tools for nurse educators from Dr. Pam Jeffries.

All sessions on Thursday and Friday must be completed to receive eight contact hours of continuing education credit.

Panel Discussion Participation

Do you have an innovative nursing education approach that involves the use of technology in teaching that you would like to share with others? Are you interested in participating in a panel discussion to share your work? Representatives from all levels of nursing education will be selected to participate in a panel discussion facilitated by Dr. Pam Jeffries on May 18, 2007. We will celebrate success stories and learn from your experience. If you would like to be considered, please contact Emily Piercy, emily.piercy@kctcs.edu, with a brief description of your work, and become involved in spreading the word to other nurse educators at KLN's Annual Nurse Educator Conference in May.

Call for Poster Presentations

Sharing our research projects is necessary to disseminate information to our colleagues and peers. If you have a poster presentation you would like to share with others interested in nursing education, please contact Lynn Roser, lynn.rosier@kctcs.edu, with a description of your work for inclusion in the poster session. Presenters must be in attendance at the Conference to discuss findings with attendees.

Participation in the panel discussion and/or poster presentation addresses the following NLN Core Competency for Nurse Educators®.
