Massachusetts/Rhode Island League of Nursing (MARI LN) Conference

Poster Session Application

Purpose and Audience:
- Offer an opportunity for nurse educators to present scholarly work relevant to nursing education at a regional conference
- Posters are peer-reviewed by a subcommittee of educators
- Conferences are attended by approximately 150 nurse educators and administrators from Massachusetts and Rhode Island
- At least one presenter should be available to dialogue with conference attendees during designated poster session breakout periods
- Poster presenters must be a MARI LN member and must register for the MARI LN conference.

Suggestions for Poster Development
Evidence based innovations in teaching and learning
Active learning strategies in the classroom and simulation lab
Retention (persistence) strategies in nursing education

Layout should be colorful, creative, font large enough to be read from 3 feet away and follow a scholarly format (Problem Statement/Research question/Methodology/Results/Discussion) Participants have found PosterPresentations.com to be an excellent website if help is needed in construction of the poster

All posters will be displayed along one wall of the Pleasant Valley Country Club. Tables are available, tabletop stands must be provided by the presenter, posters can also be taped on the windows behind the table

Submission Process:
Please utilize the format provided on the next page and submit via e-mail by March 1, 2017 to Cheryl A. Williams Ph.D. RN CNE NP-C at cwilliams2@salemstate.edu

Abstracts must be non-commercial in content. A committee of MARI LN affiliated nurse educators will review abstracts for the following elements:
- research/best practices in nursing education
- appeal to nurse educators
- clarity of expression.

Applicants will be notified of the committee decision by March 15, 2017.
