Purpose:

Nurse Educators are being challenged to adapt their teaching styles to meet the needs of the new generation of learners. The students entering higher education have grown up using technology in and out of the classroom. This conference will provide learning focused on using technology and instructional methods to enhance student engagement and learning in and out of the classroom. Significant time will be allotted to demonstrate and practice using the latest educational technologies, which include: web-based resources, desktop resources, and online applications. Participants are encouraged to bring their own devices. The focus will be on practical knowledge and hands-on experience. Participants will leave with the knowledge to apply at least one new technology skill to their work setting; discuss ways that educational technology can support instruction and student learning; and demonstrate leadership by modeling the use of educational technology.
